Designation of Beneficiary

At the time of my death, the primary beneficiaries named below will receive my HSA assets. If all of my primary beneficiaries die before me, the contingent beneficiaries named below will receive my HSA assets. In the event a beneficiary dies before me, such beneficiary's share will be reallocated on a pro-rata basis to the other beneficiaries that share the deceased beneficiary's classification as a primary or contingent beneficiary. If all of the beneficiaries die before me, my HSA assets will be paid to my estate. If no percentages are assigned to beneficiaries, the beneficiaries will share equally. If the percentage total for each beneficiary classification does not equal 100 percent, any remaining percentage will be divided equally among the beneficiaries within such class. This designation revokes and supersedes all earlier beneficiary designations which may apply to this HSA.

HEALTH SAVINGS ACCOUNT CUSTODIAL AGREEMENT

The account holder whose name appears on the attached Application (“Depositor”) is establishing at New York Community Bank a Health Savings Account (“HSA”) under Section 223(a) of the Internal Revenue Code (“Code”) exclusively for the purpose of paying or reimbursing qualified medical expenses of the Depositor and his or her spouse and dependents. The Depositor has assigned to the custodial account the sum indicated on the Application. The Depositor represents that, unless this account is used solely to make rollover contributions, he or she is eligible to contribute to this HSA, specifically, that he or she: (1) is (or as of the effective date as Set forth in the Application will be) covered under a high deductible health plan (“HDHP”), (2) is not also covered by any other health plan that is not an HDHP (with certain exceptions for plans providing preventative care and limited types of permitted insurance and permitted coverage); (3) is not enrolled in Medicare; and (4) cannot be claimed as a dependent on another person’s tax return.

The Depositor, by submitting the signed Application, and the Custodian, by acceptance of the application and delivery of account items to the Depositor for the Depositor’s HSA, make the following agreement:

ARTICLE I: The Custodian may accept additional cash contributions for the tax year made by or on behalf of the Depositor (by an employer, family member or any other person). No contributions will be accepted by the Custodian for the Depositor that exceeds the maximum amount for family coverage plus the catch-up contribution. Contributions for any tax year may be made at any time before the deadline for filing the Depositor’s federal income tax return for that year (without extensions). Rollover contributions from an HSA or an Archer Medical Savings Account (Archer MSA) may not be in cash and must be in the form of a trustee-to-trustee rollover and are not subject to the maximum annual contribution limit set forth in Article II. Rollover contributions from an individual retirement account may not be in cash and must be in the form of a trustee-to-trustee rollover and are not subject to the maximum annual contribution limit set forth in Article II. We also reserve the right not to accept any transfer.

ARTICLE II: For calendar year 2022, the maximum annual contribution limit for a Depositor with single coverage is $3,650.00. The maximum out-of-pocket expenses for calendar year 2022 for single plan coverage is $7,050.00. For calendar year 2022, the maximum annual contribution limit for a Depositor with family coverage is $7,300.00. The maximum out-of-pocket expenses for calendar year 2022 for family plan coverage is $14,100.00. Eligibility and contribution limits are determined on a month-to-month basis. Contributions to Archer MSAs or other FSAs count toward the maximum annual contribution limit to this HSA. For calendar year 2022, an additional $1000 catch-up contribution may be made for a Depositor who is at least age 55 or older and not enrolled in Medicare. Contributions in excess of the maximum annual contribution limit (other than catch-up or rollover contributions) are subject to an excise tax. This tax will apply each year in which an excess remains in your HSA

ARTICLE III: The Depositor shall have the sole responsibility to determine whether contributions to this HSA have exceeded the maximum annual contribution limit described in Article II. If contributions to this HSA exceed the maximum annual contribution limit, the Depositor shall notify the Custodian that there exist excess contributions to the HSA. It is the responsibility of the Depositor to request the withdrawal of the excess contribution and any net income attributable to such excess contribution.

ARTICLE IV: The Depositor’s interest in this custodial account is non-forfeitable.

ARTICLE V: No part of the custodial funds may be invested in life insurance contracts or in collectibles as defined in Code Section 408(m). The assets of this account may not be commingled with other property except in a common trust fund or common investment fund. Neither the Depositor nor the Custodian will engage in any prohibited transaction with respect to this account (such as borrowing or pledging the account or engaging in any other prohibited transaction as defined in Code Section 4975).

ARTICLE VI: Distributions of funds from this HSA may be made upon the direction of the Depositor; withdrawals by the Depositor may be made at a branch, or by use of a Visa® check card, or by checks issued to the Depositor. Distributions from this HSA that are used exclusively to pay or reimburse qualified medical expenses of the Depositor, his or her spouse, or dependents are tax-free.

102 Duffy Ave, Hicksville, NY 11801

However, distributions that are not used for qualified medical expenses are included in the Depositor's gross income and are subject to an additional 20 percent tax on that amount. The additional 20 percent tax does not apply if the distribution is made after the Depositor's death, disability, or reaching age 65. The Custodian is not required to determine whether the distribution is for the payment or reimbursement of qualified medical expenses, only the Depositor is responsible for substantiating that the distribution is for qualified medical expenses and must maintain records sufficient to show, if required, that the distribution is tax-free; any taxes, interest or penalties incurred for Depositor's violation of this responsibility shall be the sole obligation of the Depositor. Any withdrawals shall be subject to all applicable tax and other laws and regulations including possible early withdrawal penalties and withholding requirements.

ARTICLE VII: If the Depositor dies before the entire interest in the account is distributed, the entire account will be disposed of as follows, as designated on the application:

1. If the beneficiary is the Depositor's spouse, the HSA will become the spouse's HSA as of the date of death.
2. If the beneficiary is not the Depositor's spouse, the HSA shall cease to be an HSA account as of the date of death. If the beneficiary is the Depositor's estate, the fair market value of the account as of the date of death is taxable on the Depositor's final return. For other beneficiaries, the fair market value of the account is taxable to that person in the tax year that includes such date.

ARTICLE VIII: The Depositor agrees to provide the Custodian with information necessary for the Custodian to prepare any report or return required by the law. The Custodian agrees to submit any report or return as prescribed by the law.

ARTICLE IX: You represent and warrant to us that any information you have given or will give us with respect to this Agreement is complete and accurate. Further, you agree that any directions you give us, or action you take will be proper under this Agreement and that we are entitled to rely upon any such information or directions. We shall not be responsible for losses of any kind that may result from your directions to us or your actions or failures to act and you agree to reimburse us for any losses we may incur as a result of such directions, actions, or failures to act. We shall not be responsible for any penalties, taxes, judgments or expenses you incur in connection with your H.S.A. We have no duty to determine whether your contributions or distributions comply with the Code, regulations, rulings or this Agreement.

ARTICLE X: Notwithstanding any other article that may be added or incorporated in this agreement, the provisions of Articles I through IX and this sentence are controlling. Any additional article in this agreement that is inconsistent with Code Section 223 or IRS published guidance or law will be void.

ARTICLE XI: This Agreement will be amended from time to time to comply with the provisions of the Code or IRS published guidance; these amendments do not require your consent. Other amendments may be made with the consent of the Depositor and the Custodian. You will be deemed to have consented to any other amendment unless, within 30 days from the date we mail the amendment, you notify us in writing that you do not consent.

ARTICLE XII: We have the right to charge an annual or monthly service fee or other designated fees (for example, a transfer, withdrawal or termination fee) for maintaining your H.S.A. in accordance with the Schedule of Fees. In addition we have the right to be reimbursed for all reasonable expenses we incur in connection with the administration of your H.S.A. We may charge you separately for any fees or expenses or we may deduct the amount of the fees or expenses from the assets in your H.S.A. at our discretion. We reserve the right to charge any additional fee upon 30 day notice to you that the fee will be effective.

ARTICLE XIII: This agreement is subject to all applicable Federal and State laws and regulations. If it is necessary to apply any State law to interpret and administer this Agreement, the law of the State of New York shall govern.

If any part of this Agreement is held to be illegal or invalid, the remaining parts shall not be affected. Neither you nor our failure to enforce at any time or for any period of time any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of such provisions, or your right or our right thereafter to enforce each and every such provision.

ARTICLE XIV

1. Definitions: In this part of the Agreement (Article XI), the words “I”, “you” and “your” refer to the Depositor. The Depositor is the person who establishes the custodial account. The words “we,” “our,” and “us” refer to the Custodian, New York Community Bank.

2. Termination: Either party may terminate the Agreement at any time by giving written notice to the other. We can resign as Custodian at any time effective 30 days after we mail written notice of our resignation to you. Upon receipt of that notice you must make arrangements to transfer your H.S.A. to another financial entity. If you do not complete a transfer of your H.S.A. within 30 days from the date we mail the notice to you, we have the right to transfer your H.S.A. assets to a successor H.S.A. custodian or trustee that we choose at our sole discretion or we may pay your H.S.A. to you in a single sum. We shall not be liable for any actions or failures to act on the part of any successor custodian or trustee nor for any tax consequences you may incur that result from the transfer or distribution of your assets pursuant to this Section.

- Any fees, expenses, or taxes chargeable against your H.S.A.
- Any penalties associated with the early withdrawal of any savings instrument or other investment in your H.S.A.
- If we merge with, purchase, or are acquired by another organization, or if we transfer the account to an affiliate organization, such organization, if qualified, shall automatically become the successor custodian or trustee of your H.S.A.
